Thy honor we acclaim;

To laud thy noble name,

In thee we students shall renew

Our faith of days gone by,

Across the years we'll live anew

Thy spirit Southside High.

Across the years we'll live anew

Thy spirit Southside High.

O, dear Southside, thy loving ways

And charms will ever be,

Those memories of golden days,

Those friends and hearts so free.

To thee we pledge thy honor due,

And parting sound thy cheers;

Our thoughts of you, so staunch, so true,

Will live through all the years.

Our thoughts of you, so staunch, so true,

TO OUR FOREFATHERS

We dedicate the 1958 Edsonian to those who, from the first bite of steel into virgin timber, have endeavored to pass on to us, their descendants, a better community than was transmitted to them. It is the purpose of this yearbook to remind us—lest we forget—of our ancestor's dedication to ease our lives from hardships. Also we of the 1958 Edsonian wish to relay their spirit. We do not bask in the sun of our forefathers' glory, but rather walk in the shadows of their achievements.

OUR PRINCIPAL

ARNOLD D. GREENE

Southside High School has indeed been fortunate in having Mr. Greene as its principal. His willingness to listen, his ability to think clearly, and his fairness in decisions have won him the respect of students and faculty. In spite of his many duties and responsibilities, Mr. Greene has always taken a personal interest in us as individuals. Also, through his interest in all school activities and the fine examples he has set, Mr. Greene has inspired the students to take greater pride in their school.

The Senior Class of 1958 would like to express its gratitude to Mr. Greene for the guidance and assistance he has given our class.

MR. MILLER

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

We have known Charles Miller for two short years, but in those years we have profited much from this acquaintanship and from the examples he has set for us. If we follow these fine examples, we shall surely be successful and a credit to society.

Mr. Miller's primary duty is to relieve Mr. Greene of his disciplinary duties. These duties are enacted firmly but wisely. His methods may sometimes seem harsh, but he works for our welfare.

We, the class of 1958, would like to thank you, Mr. Miller, for the understanding you have shown us.

STUDENT COUNCIL

"I solemnly and sincerely promise . . ."—These words open Southside High School's Student Council Oath. Everyone taking the oath promises to work with and for the Student Council. This year the Student Council was ably led by Dennis Newnham and advised by Mr. Greene and Miss Callahan.

The Council has been successful in its campaign against litter-bugs, supervision of Christmas decorations on homeroom doors, and the sale of school pennants. This success makes it possible for us "to transmit this, our school, a greater, better, more beautiful school than was transmitted to us."

Southside High School's Alpha Chapter of the National Honor Society is composed of members of the Class of 1958. These members are chosen because they possess the qualities that make a good school citizen—scholarship, service, character, and leadership.

This year the Honor Society is fortunate, for its membership includes leaders in athletic, musical, and class activities at Southside. Its members are good citizens who are a credit to our school.

Guided by the Society advisor, Miss Elsa Brookfield, the members have maintained the high standards of the Honor Society pledge. They have profited by the example set by past members and have set a fine example for the future.

YOUTH COUNTY AND BOYS STATE

Last June, sixty-one Juniors were selected to represent Southside High School at Youth County. Seven of the boys were also selected for Boys State. They were given a chance to practice city, county, and state government. They elected candidates, ran for office, held nominating conventions, and practiced running model governments. Learning the ideas and rules of government will help these students to fulfill their civic obligations in later life. Our country is based on the idea that anyone may take part in the making of city, county, state, or national government. These two activities gave, and will continue to give youth the opportunity to learn what goes into politics.

EDSONIAN

As the future tends to shadow the past, may this 1958 Edsonian be a vivid portrayal of four unforgettable years at Southside High School. Within these pages we proudly present the spirit of Southside High School as well as a record of our activities and events.

In the important years ahead, as we travel life's uncertain paths, may the memories recorded in this yearbook remain unshadowed and forever bright in our thoughts.

EL-SO-HI

Finding and publishing all the news of interest to the students was the assignment for the El-So-Hi staffs.

On the literary end, the reporters were busy finding and writing the news items in an eye-catching manner. Along with them were the editors, selecting features, writing editorials, setting up headlines, and making assignments.

The business staff collected ads and money to make possible the publication of the paper.

Though faced by the problems of finance, circulation, ads, copies, and exchanges, these staffs, under the leadership of Miss Mabel I. Haupt, advisor, and Judy Bumbalo, editor, published successfully Volume XXXIV of the El-So-Hi, recording for future years the shadows cast by our students in Southside's annals.

SERVICE CLUBS

Although their activities are unpublicized, Southside's service clubs are active during the school year making important contributions.

Aiding Mrs. Rodgers and Miss Rosinski in the Library are the members of the library staff. These students volunteer to do such jobs as checking books to lessen the librarians' work.

Under the leadership of Miss Moxley, advisor, and Ann Cernohorsky, president, Scribbler's Club held monthly bake sales to sponsor its Breesport County Home project.

By holding a membership drive, the Junior Red Cross, headed by Helen Williams and advised by Miss King, sent funds to aid the work of the national organization.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

The Future Teachers of America, a chapter of Educo has as its objective the recruitment of the most desirable students at Southside for the teaching profession. To accomplish this and to create interest in one of the oldest professions known to man, several members were allowed to conduct practice classes. With the belief that the life giving blood of education lies with its teachers, we may rest assured that education in our democracy will never die as long as we have organizations like the Future Teachers of America.

SCIENCE CLUB

Due to the greater interest in scientific advancement, Epstimine, Southside's science club was formed. Under the close direction of its most capable advisers, Mr. Hayes and Mr. Ball, the organization has had a most successful year in establishing sounder bases for science students through experiments and field trips.

Southside's language clubs—German, French, and Spanish—have a common goal; that of bringing about an interest in the customs, traditions, and people of these specific countries. Besides increasing their knowledge through slides and lectures, the members participate in many interesting activities. The advisors of these clubs are Miss Winifred Prechtel, Mrs. Marion Lynch Burke, and Miss Elsa Brookfield, respectively.

German, French and Spanish add interest.

JUNIOR PLAY

Looking back to the 12th and 13th of April in our Junior year, fond memories of the play, "Brigidine," directed by our dramatics coach Mr. R. J. Lynough, are retained by all.

This musical comedy, a story about a thrilling, but sometimes trying weekend at a small college, brings out the loves, trials, and triumphs of four young people.

As the years go by, many of the details will recede into the shadows, but we can never forget the wonderful play and its success.

On the 6th and 7th of December, "Judge Me Not," a three act tragedy-comedy, written by R. J. Lynough, was presented by the senior class, bringing to a close five tedious weeks of high-strung nerves and lack of sleep.

This was a moral-seeking play that proved the noteworthy quote from Lowell, "At the devil's booth are all things sold."

The play, in the minds and hearts of all those connected with it, will forever be a light in shadows of our past.

FOOTLIGHTERS CLUB

Southside's dramatic club, Footlighters, has successfully filled the school's demand for dramatic training since its formation in 1951. Under the guidance of Mr. Robert J. Lynough, the organization has undertaken several activities.

This popular club selects its members through competitive auditions. In addition, an art advisor and two technical advisors are admitted besides two honorary members which are chosen for their performance in the Senior play. This year Michael Murtaugh and James Duffield were chosen for their outstanding performance in "Judge Me Not."

Through the years, one of Southside's most useful organizations has been Upsilon Kappa.

Its primary purpose is to provide ushers for school assemblies, school plays, civic affairs, and to maintain a hostess table.

All senior girls are eligible for membership in this service organization which is under the guidance of Mrs. Jean Rodgers and Miss Kathleen Butler.

Each year Upsilon Kappa presents an award to an outstanding member.

TRAFFIC SQUAD

We should thank the members of the Traffic Squad for keeping order in Southside's halls. These boys are at their posts not only between classes, but also before assemblies. The Traffic Squad prevents accidents and helps us move between classes more efficiently. Congratulations on a job well done.

As in the old days, we have many interests.

THE HUMANE CLUB

The Humane Club, under the guidance of Miss Mary Jenkins and Mrs. Ralph Austin, works to promote local as well as national humane societies. This group sponsored an open house Christmas Adoption Party for the animals at The Animal Shelter. The Humane Club deserves special recognition for all the fine work they do.

GLEE CLUB

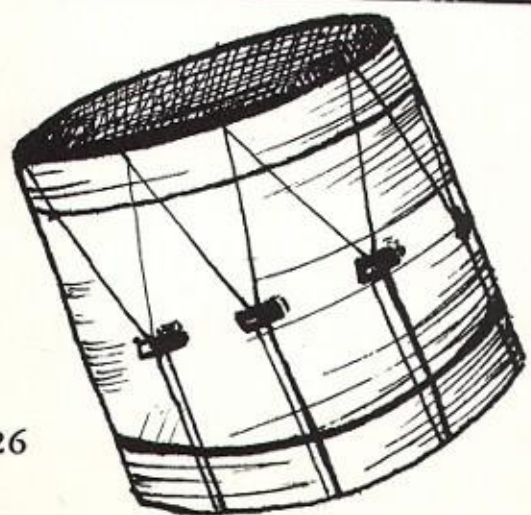

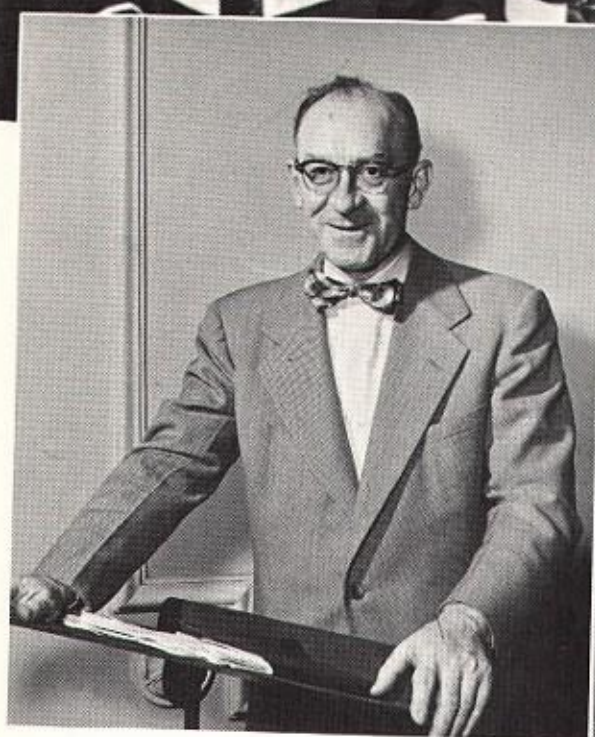

A well-known vocal group at Southside is the Girls Glee Club. Under the direction of James B. Matson, the members of the Glee Club practiced hard and long to present outstanding performances.

To further assure their success, auditions were held to select the outstanding voices.

Through the past months, the Glee Club has filled the halls of Southside with harmonious echoes. Their enthusiasm and musical ability has been well received and rewarded each year when they performed in the Spring Concert. We all agree that Southside is fortunate in having so fine and talented a musical group.

The Southside Orchestra, directed by Mr. Biery, is also open to students of all classes. Besides providing music for each assembly, this instrumental group participates in the Spring Concert and performs at the Commencement exercises every year.

MIXED CHORUS

Another important group of entertainers at Southside is the Mixed Chorus. This year the best voices of the students at Southside were chosen to be in the chorus. The direction has thus been made easier. Also better programs were organized.

Under the direction of James B. Matson, the Chorus presented "The Song of Christmas" for the Christmas Assembly. Along with the performance at the Spring Concert, this group has entertained many appreciative audiences.

LETTERMEN'S CLUB—1958

The Lettermen's Club consists of athletes who have received at least one varsity letter in a school sport. The boys who have earned two varsity letters receive a Lettermen's jacket during their senior year. The Lettermen's Club is directed by the very capable Harold Schwalb.

It's not 1780, but we still need to keep fit.

G. A. A.

The Girls Athletic Association, under the advisorship of Mrs. MacDowell, has proved to be one of the most popular extra-curricular activities for Southside girls. Meeting on Wednesdays, 9th period, the teams, consisting of girls from all classes, participate in volleyball, basketball, softball, tennis and the ever popular badminton. The officers are: President, Nancy Farnbaugh; Vice President, Nina Van Horn; Secretary, Sharyle Murray; and Treasurer, Leona Coolbaugh.

Under this organization the students' physical ability is not only advanced, but mental gain is also made—alertness, co-ordination, obedience, and above all good sportsmanship are stressed.

CHEERLEADERS

The main purpose for the Cheerleaders is to back our teams and promote school spirit. This year Mrs. Wozniak advised them. Scotch plaid kilts and the traditional white turtle-neck sweaters were worn by the Varsity, while the J. V.'s sported green skirts with white sweaters.

Leading cheers at football and basketball games, serving and entertaining at sports banquets, and preparing pep assemblies to lead the team on to victory and fill the students with enthusiasm; all these are part of the life of a cheerleader.

These peppy and vivacious girls have the true school spirit and the ability to hold their heads high—win or lose.

The purpose of the Cheerleaders Club is to promote school spirit and to support our teams. Also, they have many other activities such as selling shakers, confetti, candy, tickets and pennants during the football games. During basketball season they operate a refreshment stand. The main money project this year was to help pay for the new uniforms of the Cheerleaders and Twirlers. Other money goes to pay for the picnic and dance held at the end of the year.

The club's new advisor is Mrs. Wozniak. Its able leaders are: President, Thomie Lucas; Vice President, Linda Smith; Secretary, Sharon Semski; Treasurer, Barbara Lemoncelli.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

One of the greatest assets of the 1957 Green Hornets squad was its fighting spirit and determination to do the very best it could.

Two boys—Pete Bambury and Ben Dixon—returned after previous experience in Varsity ball. Some boys from the J. V. ranks that showed promise were moved up to Varsity. The team improved a great deal despite the odds with which they were confronted.

The fighting spirit of our boys can be best exemplified by the fact that none of them was ever knocked out of play, while players from the opposing teams were taken out.

Our squad was never out-fought—although sometimes outscored.

The Junior Varsity football squad has shown a great deal in the way of determination and ability.

The linemen made one of the most promising components of the team which was heightened by the backfielders' good passing abilities.

The Little Hornets, which were coached by the very capable Leonard Wozniak, will furnish future Southside football with some very good material.

VARSDITY BASKETBALL

The Southside Varsity Basketball squad has shown a great deal of ability when it encountered the stiffest opposition in several years. Even though many of our opponents have had a decided height advantage, our boys have gained their share of control of the ball.

A sense of team spirit and a fighting desire to win, not uncommon to Southside's athletes, have never left this group. As a result of this, some of our losses have been only by one or two points. This is a sure indication that our boys have played well even in the very last seconds of the game. A few extra 'breaks' would have meant a great deal in several of these events.

Taking everything into consideration, this year's team has done a most commendable job.

"There we go."

J. V. BASKETBALL

Coach Harold Schwalb's junior varsity basketball team for 1957-58 had a successful season in three respects. First of all, they accomplished a feat no other junior varsity team has done; they defeated rival Academy both games during the season. Secondly, the team consisted of nine freshmen and five sophomores, which means the young boys will get added experience for future varsity basketball. Last but not least, Coach Schwalb expressed great satisfaction at the progress the boys have made and indicated that several of them will make excellent varsity players.

VARSITY BASEBALL 1957

In 1957, Southside's Baseball Hornets lived up to the school's tradition of having winning seasons. Under the leadership of Coach Robert Habersaat, they fought eighteen tough opponents and finished with 10 wins and 8 defeats. With a few more breaks our record would have been much more impressive. However, the team played hard and deserved every victory it achieved.

Southside was well represented in this spring sport.

A hard-playing team of eight players worked well together, and dealt a decisive defeat over Corning North.

It is anticipated that a newly organized J.V. team will serve as the nucleus of good tennis clubs in the future.

Interests are offered at Southside.

WRESTLING

As wrestling squads go, our grapplers left nothing to be desired. Several boys returned after a year's experience, which is one of the reasons why this squad was one of the strongest in many years. The strength was well distributed among the divisions.

Under the able assistance of Coach Hurley, our matmen have become a very efficient, high-calibre team.

All the girls agree that they enjoy participating in the various active sports. To suit a variety of tastes, the girls' sports range from tumbling through softball, basketball, volleyball, badminton, and tennis under the leadership of Mrs. Wozniak and Mrs. Stephens. These activities are not only good for the figure but also give the girls a chance to gain the spirit of playing together as a team.

A Council meets in 1958 as in 1788.

SENIOR COUNCIL

The Senior Council, composed of the Senior class advisors, officers, and elected representatives from each Senior homeroom, is the most important class council. Their duty is to plan all Senior activities. Money raised by class dues, bake sales, and dances is used to pay for the Senior Prom and banquet, Senior yearbooks, and commencement arrangements. Our class has been fortunate in having a conscientious Senior Council which has worked diligently to provide for us a pleasant Senior year.

Behind every graduating class there is a motivating force. As Seniors, we express our thanks and appreciation to Mrs. Lund, Mr. Barrett, Mr. Rossi and Mr. Schwalb for the guidance and encouragement they have given us.

SENIOR CLASS ADVISORS AND OFFICERS—Seated: Mrs. Lund, Advisor; S. Dean, Treasurer. Standing: Mr. Schwalb, Advisor; S. Schaefer, Historian; P. Von Hendy, Secretary; T. Hall, Vice President; W. Cook, President.

Off to New York yearbook convention

Now take my advice

The story of that historically famous Class of 1958.

Campaign of '54 - '55

Just as our forefathers struggled to leave a lasting impression, so we, the class of 1958 have campaigned to leave a lasting impression at Southside High School.

As new recruits to the great army of S. H. S., the class of 1958, reduced from Captains in the Junior High Army to buck privates, reported to their capable leader, General Harry E. Barrett.

Through the strategy of General Barrett and our new field officers, First Lieutenant Scott Steiner, Second Lieutenant Gene Augustine, Madame Warrant Officer Joy Utter, Madame Adjutant Sandra Dean, and Madame Log-keeper Sandra Schaef, we successfully waged our first battle on December 18, 1954—The White Christmas Dance. Madame Squad Leader Sandra Deitzel organized the plan of attack by providing us with the U. S. O. unit, Meriweather and his Merrimakers.

Due to ingenious tactics our next encounter, The Half-Price Hop, held on May 6, proved even more triumphant. Under the combined squadronship of Sandra Deitzel and David Perry, we obtained the U. S. O. troupe headed by Bob Michaels, with music by the top ten.

Our platoon donated one hundred dollars to the treasury of the Army for the G. I. Bill (student loan fund).

Before beginning our two-month furlough, we were saddened by the communication reporting the transfer of the Commander in Chief Wallace J. Howell.

Campaign of '55 - '56

Returning from our furlough, we found ourselves private first-class and chose our leaders for the campaign: First Lieutenant Bruce Silvers, Madame Second Lieutenant Joy Utter, Madame Warrant Officer Barb Tremaine, Madame Adjutant Sandra Dean, and Madame Log-keeper Sandra Schaef. Another General was added to our staff of advisors—Madame General Luella B. Lund.

We were greeted by our new Commander in Chief Arnold D. Greene, who proved to be an inspiring guide for our succeeding campaigns.

On October 21, the first major conflict of the season occurred with our Sock Rock, but it was brought to a successful finish with the aid of Curt Burnett's Orchestra.

Following this battle, we faced another challenge, the Rock 'n' Roll Waltz that came to a successful completion on February 24, 1956. Providing music were the Melodians, playing from 21:00 to 24:00.

Climaxing this campaign of '55-'56 was the dance, Starlight in Blue, held on May 4, which set a new precedence—that of holding a dance in the mess hall instead of the drill hall. Preparations for this battle surpassed those of all preceding conflicts. Marjorie Schiave and Jean Fleming camouflaged the hall beautifully with blue stars and soft lights. Adding to the beauty was the music of Dick Hamlin's Orchestra. Ordinary dress was abandoned and the platoon appeared in dress uniforms of their colors, baby blue and white.

Following tradition, we sponsored the Log (Yearbook) Dance, honoring the promotion of our comrades, the Platoon of '56, to Captains.

Upon completion of this campaign we were saddened by the transfer of General Harry E. Barrett.

Campaign of '56 - '57

When we returned from leave, we were welcomed by a new General, J. David Rossi.

Leading us during this campaign were: First Lieutenant Scott Steiner, Second Lieutenant John Evans, Madame Warrant Officer Diane Lampila, Madame Adjutant Sandra Dean and Madame Log-keeper Sandra Schaef.

Squad Leaders Carol Marquette and Bruce Silvers organized our first move of the season, The Bermuda Ball held October 4th.

Again utilizing new ideas we held the Varsity Ball in the mess hall on November 9th under the squad leadership of Peggy Yerg and Robert Harner. Chosen King and Queen were Tom Mosher and Marlene Swimelar. Music was provided by a band composed of Ithaca College students.

One of the greatest engagements of our campaign occurred the evening of March 1, 1957 at the Mark Twain Hotel. Our Junior Prom, the Crystal Ball, was made especially spectacular through the romantic music of Dick Dejnozha's Orchestra, the decorations par excellence and the perfect cooperation of the entire platoon under the direction of Squad Leaders Lee Goodman and Mark Wilson.

After two and a half years of anticipation we had the privilege of presenting our own play, a musical comedy entitled "Brigidine" to capacity audiences.

Following this success we came face to face with another hurdle—that of successfully presenting Junior Day. This production proved that the talent of our platoon was equal to that of professionals in U. S. O. troops.

At the conclusion of this campaign we faced again what seemed to be our destiny, that of losing a beloved commandant, General Rossi.

Campaign of '57 - '58

At last realizing our ambitions we returned from leave as Senior members of the Grand Army of Southside.

To lead us in this most important campaign we chose First Lieutenant William Cook, Second Lieutenant Thomas Hall, Madame Warrant Officer Paula Von Hendy, Madame Adjutant Sandra Dean, and Madame Log-keeper Sandra Schaef.

Everyone appeared with his good luck piece at our next skirmish, The Superstitious Shuffle. Music was furnished by the Melodians on Friday, September 13th.

A distinct change occurred in our tactics when we presented "Judge Me Not," a tragi-comedy, on December 6th and 7th. Extraordinary talent was again displayed in this production.

In accordance with established military custom, we celebrated coming Christmas leave with the White Christmas Dance held December 20th. Madame Squad Leader Joy Utter directed the maneuvers.

To make the Irishmen in our platoon happy, we held a dance March 21st to commemorate St. Patrick's Day.

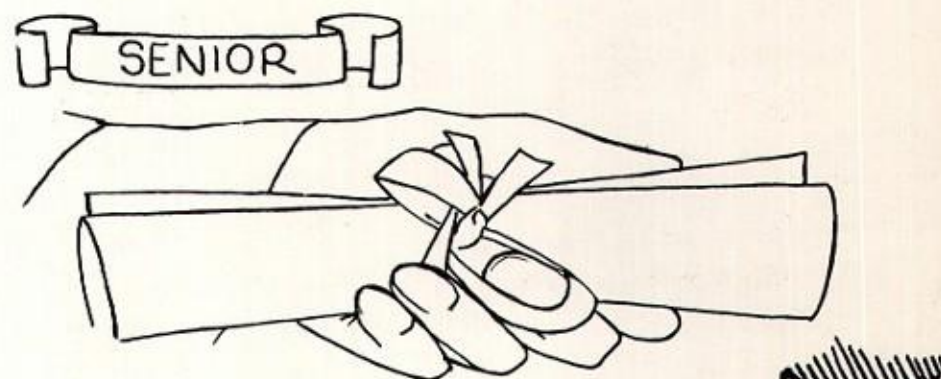

Climaxing our four year tour of duty in the Grand Army of S. H. S. were the traditional Senior activities.

On May 29th in the Mark Twain Hotel the most spectacular social event of the campaign took place—the Senior Banquet and Prom.

During the banquet, tape recordings of important conflicts brought back the joys and sorrows of our brief history. After this we added another success to our list of memories while dancing in the ballroom.

Suddenly it was time to wage our final conflict of four years, Senior Day. Following tradition we displayed our talent in this review which included singing, dancing, pantomime, and an unusually talented band.

Finally receiving our reward for all past conflicts in the four year campaigns, we marched into the assembly hall to receive our promotions to Captains in the Great Army of the Universe.

With many thanks to our friends whose help in the past and present makes our future an exciting possibility . . .
